

Give Sundance A Chance . . . Help Horses of Tir Na Nog meet a $2,500 Challenge Grant!

Sundance was rescued by County of San Diego Animal Services as a “stray” in Potrero. Although only six years old, life has taken a terrible toll on this young horse. Having been ridden nearly to death, he suffers from painful conditions in all four feet/legs. His left foot is clubbed and inflamed. A bowed tendon and cracked right hoof make standing difficult. His back legs have carried too much weight, causing suspensory ligament damage.

Sundance can never be ridden again, but with medical attention, plenty of rest, and careful management, our veterinarians believe that we can provide him with a comfortable life. With your help, we can give him a chance to graze in the pasture, roll in the sand, and enjoy the shade of an oak tree. We can give him a chance to enjoy life without debilitating pain.
